

General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

Dear PPG member

Under new data protection legislation, we are required to provide you with specific information to ensure that when providing your consent to be contacted as part of the Peninsula Practice Patient Participation Group, your consent was suitably informed.

We therefore wish to provide you with some information about how we use your information.

The Peninsula Practice are the Data Controller for the information we collect, store and use about you (in this case your name and contact details). Our Data Protection Officer details are published on our website.

We will use your information to contact you in relation to the activities of, and your participation in the Peninsula Practice Patient Participation Group.

We will not share this information with any third party organisations unless they are working directly for us and are engaged through the appropriate contracts in place to protect your data. We will only use your information in ways that are lawful and that you would reasonably expect. Your information will never be sent outside of the UK.

We will keep your information for the duration of your membership with the Peninsula Practice Patient Participation Group and, once you have left, we will retain your information in line with our retention schedules and then destroy it securely.

You have the right to withdraw consent at any time, request that your information be corrected or erased or restrict our use of it.

Please reply to confirm that you are happy for us to use your information in the way.

Many Thanks
The Peninsula Practice.
